Take Advantage of this Opportunity to Continue Your Education

Take advantage of the Judges & Exhibitors School, December 6-8, in Scottsdale, Ariz. Students of the Judges & Exhibitors School are future judges, horse show exhibitors, or just plain horse enthusiasts.

"We can all look and see a horse that we like, but until you really stand in the shoes of a judge, it's very difficult to really grasp the important elements of showing a horse to its best advantage and then evaluate why one horse won and one horse didn't. Once you stand in center ring and you start evaluating horses and you realize some of the things you have to deal with, besides just having a good eye for a horse, that's when you realize how important it is to become as educated as you can at the Judges & Exhibitors School." Lisa Blackstone

Take advantage at this opportunity to further your education. Sign up before October 29 and pay $375 or pay $400 after October 29. It will make you a better horseman. You may contact:
